HOLDINGS OF THE
TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

WHEREAS, there was passed at the regular session of the 42nd Legislature of Texas, House Bill Number 73, being "AN ACT providing for the regulations of gins, ginners, ginning; the licensing of ginners; providing for proper packing, wrapping, marking and providing for weighing of seed cotton, lint cotton, and cotton seed, and keeping a record of the same; providing for the collection of license fees to be used by the Commissioner of Agriculture for the enforcement of this Act; requiring certain reports; providing penalties for the violation of this Act; defining certain terms; repealing certain Articles of the Statute, and all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith; and declaring an emergency", and

WHEREAS, said bill has been vetoed for certain reasons stated and now on file in the office of the Secretary of State, among which reasons are the following:

"House Bill Number 73 repeals various articles of our present statutes governing the operation of gins. Among the provisions of our present law which is by this bill repealed is the one which now requires that the ginner execute a bond.

"This bill also places upon the ginners of Texas additional expense and duties which I regard as burdensome, without providing any additional benefits to the farmers and producers of cotton. For these reasons, I hereby veto this bill. "

NOW, THEREFORE, KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, THAT I, R. S. STERLING, Governor of the State of Texas, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of this State, have vetoed said bill for the reasons stated and on file, and do hereby proclaim said action to have been taken.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the seal of State to be impressed hereon at Austin, Texas, this the 2nd day of
